STORIES/INTERVIEWS/INFORMATION WANTED

NEED STORIES to flesh-out your book? List your wants here. Focus on a single topic and provide your contact information. Write tight: limit your listing to 100 words. Conform to the format so we can Copy\Paste and do not have to edit. Send your listing to DanPoynter@ParaPublishing.com Put "Stories Wanted" in the Subject line of your email. There is no charge for listings.

WANT TO CONTRIBUTE YOUR STORY? Contact requesters directly. Do not send stories, etc. to Dan.

STORIES REQUESTED:

1. I am writing a book about children's inborn character strengths, and I wonder whether any parents could pass on stories about discovering/realising the (perhaps at first masked) strengths that their children possess. An example may be: "I was always irritated by my child's determined nature, but it has ended up serving him so well in his career."

--Rob Pluke pluke@polka.co.za

2. I am writing a book which has a scene in an MTA train moving up from Coney Island, through Brooklyn and the Rutgers Tunnel to Manhattan. The setting for the story is the mid 1990's. I need more insight into the interior appearance of a train car (specifically the F-Line if possible but any info will be appreciated).

3. BABY STORIES: Are you a new parent? I would like to share your stories with prospective parents in my instruction manual for babies. Were you overwhelmed? What were you afraid of? How did your fears play out? How was the first bath? The first diaper change? Any other firsts? Looking for thoughts, actions, expectations, surprises, mishaps, adventures, helpful hints, or solutions. I may report stories in generalities or specifically quote all or part of your story. Include your permission please. Send to: babybooks1111@yahoo.com. Thank you so much! Doris Fravert

4. Many Christians are flourishing in their relationship with God outside the context of the traditional church experience - are you one of them? After 30 years of committed involvement in the local church, church planting, lay leadership, and eventual ordination, I am now enjoying a new reality of the Body of Christ outside the confines of what I'd known before. I'm researching this to learn the stories of others. What motivated you to make a change? How are you maintaining fellowship with other believers? What wisdom can you share?

5. Have you been laid off from your job? Were there extenuating circumstances that brought you to the layoff? Do you feel that corporations really don't care about employees? Do you feel that employers no longer want to "do the right thing" for their employees? Tell me your story and I will include it in my book. The focus of my book is telling the everyday story about WHO the hardworking Americans are that are losing their jobs today. Are they the young, 30-somethings that have their whole career ahead of them, or are they the 50- or 60-somethings that cost more to insure, that take more time off due to family issues or health issues? But the other side of that coin is that these 50- or 60-something workers are the ones who got these corporations where they are today and now the corporations are done with them. Is that the right thing to do? Is that the moral thing to do?

I want to explore all of the thoughts and emotions surrounding the massive layoffs happening around America and shine some light on problems that employers would like to see stay in the shadows.

Send your stories to Brenda McGuire at bmcguir@gmail.com. I'm a 58 year old unemployed technical writer living in Columbus, Ohio with a husband (who is retired) and our dog, Rocky. I'm faced with dipping into the little bit of retirement savings I have to make ends meet until I can find another job, and I want to tell these stories of people that corporations just dump and run from, not caring what their lives become when they're broke and can't find a job.

I went back to school when I was 40 years old to learn a new profession. I was a bookkeeper with little college to back me up and had one dead-end job after another. So, I went to our Community College and signed up for their Technical Communication Program. When I graduated, I landed a job with one of the largest research & development firms in the world, Battelle.

Share your stories with me so I can understand what is happening to our jobs, and more importantly, our moral compass.

D. ParaReviews

REVIEWS SELL BOOKS. Reviews make a book stand out. We can help each other by posting (five star) reviews at Amazon.com, B&N.com, BooksAMillion.com and other web sites.

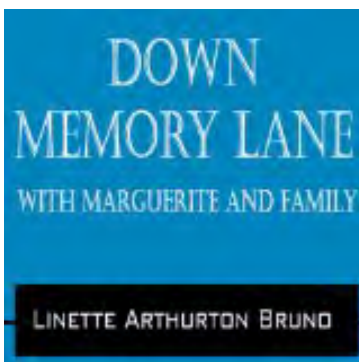

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO REVIEW BOOKS in your area of interest/expertise, contact the listing publisher directly with your Postal address. Do not send your request to Para Publishing. Please award the book at least four stars or decline to review it. A review with fewer stars is harmful to sales. The book you receive is yours to keep. If you agree to review a book and receive it from the author, please let him/her know that you have and that you will contact them again after you complete your review.

IF YOU WANT YOUR BOOK REVIEWED on Amazon.com, B&N.com, etc, list it here in Publishing Poynters Marketplace (no charge). You must be willing to send a book and promotional materials (review-book package) to readers of Publishing Poynters Marketplace who contact you (usually 5 to 10 copies). Include the number of pages in your description and for children's books, list the age level for which the book is written. Make sure the book is already listed at Amazon.com.

Just send your request and description to DanPoynter@ParaPublishing.com
Draft your request so that I do not have to edit it. Make it SHORT (100 words max), no italics or bold type. Just describe the book in a few words; don't send a lengthy review of it. Lengthy submissions will be returned for rewriting or ruthlessly cut. Reviewers only need enough information to see if they have expertise and an interest in your category. Supply full contact information including your email address. Write the draft as it should appear so that I do not have to do more than Copy\Paste. Put "Review Wanted" in the subject line.

OFFERED FOR REVIEW:

1. DOWN MEMORY LANE WITH MARGUERITE AND FAMILY

The Caribbean islands of Montserrat and Martinique have seen their destinies marked and marred by volcanic activity and other Acts of God. How characters react in the face of misfortune is at the core of this book - a tender tale of family life across three generations, related from the perspective of Marguerite, a loving wife and mother.

3. I would appreciate reviews of my non-fiction book "A Pilgrim Muddles Through"- being ANNALS FROM A LIFE: Merchandizing - Morality- Authorship - Law - Writer's Workshop - Outraged Citizen – Sailing – Retirement.

I will not send reviewers the book, but will ask them to read it on-line, via Amazon.com / books, under Robert F. Brodsky.

The breadth of the topics covered is enormous; i.e., sample "Credo of a God-Fearing Atheist", "Women", and "The Fegela's Revenge" and browse on how to get booked on the Goodyear Blimp; and, yes, ride a bus from Haifa to Amman on a Saturday.

5. I would appreciate a 5 star reviews of my book. It is on Smashwords and Amazon. The print edition is 207 pages. I can be reached Carol@RightNowIsPerfect.com

Right Now Is Perfect is a vivid and emotionally honest account of a mid-life love affair that led the narrator to literally sail off into the sunset. The couple sails with two friends across the Pacific--through the most beautiful and isolated islands in the world, aboard a 36-foot yacht. They leave the boat in New Zealand. From there they try to adjust to life on land while wondering from Seattle to Oaxaca and back. Just when it seems they might be ready to settle down together, an unexpected development throws everything into question.

6. The Unsanctioned - This suspense novel explores the clash between national security and freedom of speech on the Internet, similar to the Wikileaks scandal. Anyone who follows current events will connect with the main character, Lane Evans, as he uncovers and exposes a U.S. intelligence program gone bad. Anonymous bloggers are being killed and Lane's discovery sets him on a quest to uncover the truth, save Ana, and end a sinister program. The events that follow will test his courage, challenge his faith in longtime confidants, and force him to finally choose between the only two women he's ever loved.

7. I'm looking for reviews of my 134 page book "Tomorrow's Science Today - Proposed Future Discoveries in Science, and How Everyone will see Everything Differently" (which is mostly written in everyday English and is available at Amazon.com and CreateSpace.com) - can email it in .doc or .pdf form. This nonfictional book inspired me to write a philosophy paper (<http://philpapers.org/archive/BAR-18.3.pdf>) and produce a fictional "video" called Time Trek (<http://studios.amazon.com/scripts/3293>)

A broad outline of future discoveries concerning the workings of Nature, and of science's reconciliation with religion."If a complete unified theory was discovered, it would only be a matter of time before it was digested and simplified ... and taught in schools, at least in outline. We should then all be able to have some understanding of the laws that govern the universe and are responsible for our existence." ("A Brief History of Time" by Stephen Hawking, Introduction by Carl Sagan) In this book, we'll learn about intergalactic travel - we'll also learn how to travel into the future and the past (though neither can be changed). And we'll see that ESP (extra-sensory perception) and telekinesis (psychokinesis) are scientifically possible.

8. Wildlife Stalker – Days in the Life of Filmmaker Bob Landis

Recording incredible wildlife behavior on movie film and video is the hallmark of Bob Landis' films. For more than 40 years, he has made wildlife movies about swans, coyotes, elk, bison, bear, otters and more, and he loves to show the unusual: an eagle drowning a duck, or a coyote chasing a wolf, for example. His films have aired on PBS, Nature and on National Geographic Television. A place dear to his soul, Yellowstone National Park is where most of this story takes place. This biography contains two narratives wound into one: a depiction of days afield with a wildlife cinematographer who has filmed and co-produced stories about Yellowstone's iconic species, and it is a collection of flashbacks to Landis' past – growing up as a small-town Wisconsin boy, as a school teacher turned wildlife filmmaker extraordinaire.

9. Would you be interested in receiving a review copy, print or digital format, of a new novel of sailing and adventure set in the South Pacific - Tahiti, New Zealand, Hawaii - and a great summer beach read:

Better Than Ever, Again
 by Mitch Davies

Good, fast read. ...the book is mainly set in Tahiti - and the descriptions are wonderful. Half action novel, half mystery novel - great book for the beach!!

- Anne Evans

, reader at GoodReads

...an action and adventure book. Mitch Davies has set it in exotic locations with colorful, memorable characters. The story flows well and has some rather unexpected twists.

- Allen at The Really Random Site

I very much enjoyed this book.... This book is a keeper and I will be reading this one again . If you are looking for a book with adventure then this is the book for you.

- GigglesSilly on Amazon

About the Book:

Who hasn't dreamt of sailing in the South Pacific as the owner of a sleek, gleaming yacht? Ben Beck finds that dream job as a crew member sailing on just such a ship. With a history of working 'too good to be true' opportunities, he still can't believe his luck. Sailing excursions in Tahiti for a year then sell the yacht and get a nice chunk of the proceeds. The ad said, "No Sailing Experience Necessary" and he had the qualifications. His fellow group members include Carl, the millionaire boss, Duane, a hard-to-please captain, Purette, a serious beauty and Rudy, a potential danger. After a confusing start of mis-information, Ben isn't sure of exactly what he's gotten himself into. How many partners does he have? Where exactly are they going? And then there's Tahiti. Can they sail the southern seas without any mishaps? When Ben finds out what's really going on, can he save the dream?

Author Biography:

Mitch Davies was born in Canada and spent 40 years there before moving to the desert of Arizona. He is a true child of the media having grown up with a father who worked his entire career in the film industry. The house he grew up in had a television on from the time he woke up until he went to bed. The influence of stories, whether real or made up, was always present. Due to this exposure, Mitch viewed most of life's occurrences as scenes for a story.

Mitch Davies has a strong interest in things Japanese and in August of 2010 went to Japan to live and write for three months. His preparation for the trip and his experiences while living in Japan can be followed on his blog at www.Zonajin.blogspot.com

Previously he authored a novel A Wind in Montana. Better Than Ever, Again is his second novel.

10. The Truth About Cruise Ships - A Cruise Ship Officer Survives the Work, Adventure, Alcohol, and Sex of Ship Life

This is a behind-the-scenes look at cruise ships in a way that's never been done before. Some of the stories are shocking, some are enlightening, but most are just laugh-out-loud entertaining. This tour behind those "Crew Only" doors will reveal:

- How romance on a cruise ship is unlike anywhere else
- The insane things passengers do
- Why alcohol is mandatory at sea
- How nude cruises compare to Christian cruises
- What happens when things go horribly wrong at sea

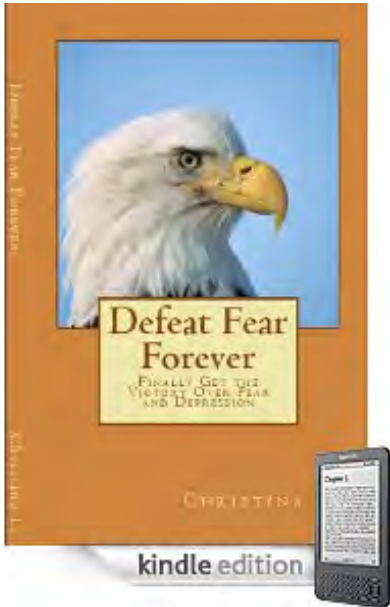

Jay Herring was an American senior officer and one of the few who had physical access to the entire ship. He worked with every department and every senior officer, including the captain. His wife worked in the casino, and combined they worked for Carnival Cruise Lines for 10 years and sailed on over 503 cruises. If you've ever wondered what happens below deck on a cruise ship, then get ready to laugh through an experience unlike any other!

11. Do you suffer from fear? Do you feel like your dreams will never come true because of your fears? Are you afraid of failure, success, sickness, job loss, financial troubles, death? Defeat Fear Forever addresses those very issues in nine progressive chapters. Warning: Don't buy this book if you are not willing to change the way you think and act. Don't buy this book if you are not truly willing to do what it takes to defeat fear--for real and forever. There are things in this book that will more than likely challenge what you have always been taught. However, if you are willing to apply the messages in this book to your own life, you will start to see victory. You will even start to see miracles. What are you waiting for? Don't you think it's time for some real change?

12. Other World by Garden Urthark presents the epic story of Moody Santo and his quest for love and freedom. Moody's premature death brings his resurrection and an afterlife in Other World. By learning to control the emission of a beam of energy from his brain, Moody escapes—back to this world—returning to his true love, to revenge, and to the birth of a son in the successful completion of a quest that is a triumph of right over wrong, of good over evil, and of life over death. (Other World is 251 pages long in PDF format.)

My ebook is available for free from Smashwords (see below). I don't see how I would need to send copies to any reviewer. The book is too large (over 140,000 words) to be emailed and can be downloaded for free from Smashwords, which does not yet have arrangements for distribution to Amazon.com. However, I could use reviews from any other possible outlets.

17. Do you know a parent of a Kindergartner or Preschooler who might like to turn their non-reader into a reader? Here's your opportunity. Turn a Kindergartner or Preschooler from NON-READER to READER, with 5-minute, systematic phonics lessons in The Phonics Reading Book (4th Edition). The 3rd Edition, Student's First Reading Book has already been adopted by the great state of New Mexico, as supplemental Reading Intervention material for their Elementary Schools. The author, a nationally published CPA, wrote and used the first edition, My Child's First Reading Book to successfully turn his Kindergartner from Non-Reader to Reader – in 2004. After they know the alphabet, learning to read is just two steps: (1) knowing the letter-sounds and (2) putting those sounds together. Section 1 teaches all the letter-sounds and has a reading page with each lesson. By the end of Section 1, they're reading short-vowel books. Section 2 introduces them to blends and segmenting of long words. By the end of Section 2, they have the tools to read any book! Don't just take my word for it. The National Reading Panel, mandated by Congress in 1997 to study how children learn best to read, spent two years examining some 600 comprehensive studies and holding open panel discussions across the country. They concluded that, "Kindergartners who receive systematic beginning phonics instruction read better and spell better than other children, and first graders are better able to decode and spell words." This book has also been proven to work in any reading intervention situation. For example, Catholic Charities in Albuquerque has used the first edition, extensively, with adult refugees from Iraq! 88 Lessons in 2 Sections and 132 pages.

The Phonics Reading Book is a Global eBook Award Nominee (and is also available at Amazon.com).

Synopsis:

Be transported through time to the Underground Railroad, where high-pitched screams echo each night. David's cruel Pa always chooses the same victim. Despite the circumstances during slavery, David uncovers the courage to defy his Pa. Raised in a hostile environment where abuse occurs daily, David attempts to break the mold and befriends the slave, Jenkins, owned by his Pa. Fighting against extraordinary times and beliefs, David attempts to lead Jenkins to freedom with no regard for his own safety and possible consequences dealt out by his Pa.

22. Reflections of EL: In Search of Self

The main character, Dyllon, finds that growing up in Harlem is a truly blissful experience. This work of fiction is for those who enjoy recalling old songs, remembering their first love and reminiscing about what happens after the hard decisions are made. If you have a taste for "the good old days" with an added twist of the unknown, then Reflections of EL: In Search of Self will more than fascinate you.

I am seeking reviews. For a review copy, contact: Dyllonfive5@aol.com or visit my website: <http://outskirtspress.com/reflectionsofel>
